

Name:

Date:

Hour:

Chapter 16 Section 2: The War in the East (p. 516)

Directions: Complete the following worksheet during and after reading the section in the textbook. To complete this worksheet outside of class visit the textbook website at www.waverlyhistory8.weebly.com

Big Idea: Confederate and Union forces faced off in Virginia and at sea.

Key Terms and People: Thomas “Stonewall” Jackson, First Battle of Bull Run, George B. McClellan, Robert E. Lee, Seven Days’ Battles, Second Battle of Bull Run, Battle of Antietam, ironclads

Battles in the East (p. 517)

1. Location - Which battle was fought in Maryland?

2. Human-Environment Interaction - How did geography influence the movement of forces?

Biography: Robert E. Lee (p. 519)

1. How did Lee’s choice reflect the division of the states?

Map: Union Blockade (p. 521)

1. What major port cities in the South were affected by the blockade?

Assessment Questions

Reviewing Ideas, Terms, and People

1. a. Identify List the early battles in the East and the outcome of each battle

Name:

Date:

Hour:

1. b. Elaborate Why do you think the Union lost the First Battle of Bull Run?

2. a. Describe What costly mistake did the Confederacy make before the Battle of Antietam?

2. b. Analyze What was the outcome of the Battle of Antietam, and what effect did it have on both the North and the South?

2. c. Elaborate Why do you think General George B. McClellan did not finish off General Robert E. Lee's troops when he had the chance?

3. a. Describe What was the Union's strategy in the war at sea?

3. b. Draw Conclusions Why were ironclads more successful than older, wooden ships?

4. Supporting a Point of View Review your notes on the battles in the east and at sea. Then fill in the interactive graphic organizer to show which three conflicts you think were the most significant and why.

Most Significant	Why